

Bespoke English UK Diploma in ELT Management

The only diploma level qualification for academic managers and directors at language teaching centres.

Who is the DELTM for?

The programme is suitable for those with key managerial roles within language schools such as principals, school directors and academic managers.

The DELTM challenges managers to develop their repertoire, find new and effective practices, and to help build value in their organisations and teams.

What does the course cover?

The programme covers management skills from the day-to-day operational level up to the strategic level, exploring fundamental questions about organisational goals over a three to five-year time span.

Participants will look at leadership and team-building, stress management and motivation, product development and marketing, policy, planning and profit.

The DELTM is the ideal solution for the development of your managers and your business. The programme constantly evolves in line with the latest management trends and can be shaped to match your needs.

Creating your DELTM

The DELTM is a flexible, blended programme that can be tailored to you – whether delivered in the UK or overseas, as an intensive block or over the course of several months. Flexible pricing also allows you to reduce the cost per head for larger groups.

Contact huan.japes@englishuk.com to discuss how we can match the course and delivery to your needs.

Course validation and certification

The programme is externally validated and certificated by LanguageCert, a division of PeopleCert, a global leader in the certification industry that delivers millions of exams in over 200 countries.

An English UK course validated and certificated by

Language
Cert

The DELTM at a glance

- Customisable, flexible blended programme
- Ten in-depth modules
- Face-to-face sessions and online discussion
- Five practical coursework assignments
- End of course project
- Highly experienced trainers
- Excellent levels of support
- Small group size (max. 18 per course)
- Externally validated by LanguageCert.

“If you are seriously thinking of making a career of academic management, the DELTM is essential to your professional development.”
Jake Castaldi, English in Margate.

read the full interview +

“It has run for 20 years and feedback shows it has helped participants become better managers. We have a lot of repeat business. Many sector leaders have put different people on the course.” George Pickering, DELTM Academic Director.

read the full interview +

Find out more
englishuk.com/delmtm