A scenic photograph of a coastal town at sunset. The foreground is dominated by large, smooth, dark rocks partially submerged in shallow, rippling water. In the middle ground, a sandy beach is visible with several people walking. The background features a hillside with a cluster of white buildings, likely a coastal town, and a large, rocky cliff face illuminated by the warm, golden light of the setting sun. The sky is a mix of soft pinks, oranges, and blues.
